

Chintan B. Maniyar is a PhD candidate at the University of Georgia and a NASA FINESST Fellow specializing in aquatic remote sensing. His work combines ocean optics with advanced Geo-AI and physics-informed machine learning to track global water quality and CyanoHABs. With expertise ranging from hyperspectral data processing on HPC clusters to the development of low-cost in situ sensors, he focuses on creating scalable, data-driven operational solutions for aquatic science.